1. Arts Education Program/ Professional Development Grants Deepen knowledge and strengthen the practice of educators and/or civic leaders who engage students in arts learning. Projects must provide meaningful opportunities for participants to experience the arts, provide in-depth learning, and measure the impact of the professional development experience. For example, the National Corporate Theatre Fund received a grant to use technology to provide professional development in Common Core Standards, assessment, and measurement/ outcomes to arts education directors and their teaching staffs in 19 theater companies across the country	Community-Based Professional Development application deadline is usually in February. School-based Professional Development application deadline is usually in July.	15-20 grants per year	Not available at this level of detail	Not available at this level of detail	Appropriate arts education specialist specified at http://arts.gov/grants-organizations/art-works/arts-education	These projects must include all of the following elements: • Experience: Participants have an experience in or through the arts. • Study: Participants are engaged in a sustained, in-depth course of study. • Evaluate: Participant learning is evaluated and the impact of the professional development on practice is measured.

Objective 2.3.6: Data, Grant and Funding Models
Identify grant opportunities, programs, outreach efforts etc…that address family engagement in the Hispanic community.

High Priority Performance Goal or Program Goal 2: K-12 EDUCATION – Family Engagement

1. Arts Education Program/ Direct Learning Grants Increase student knowledge and skills in the arts. Projects must provide extended participatory learning that engages students with accomplished artists and arts educators align with either national or state arts education standards, and rigorously assess student learning. Most projects include family engagement efforts; but an application focused exclusively on family engagement would not be competitive. 1) Community-Based Direct Learning Grant, 2) School-based Direct Learning Grant	Community-based Direct Learning grants issued in February. School-based Direct Learning grants issued in July.	Approximately 140 grants per year	Not available at this level of detail	Not available at this level of detail	Appropriate arts education specialist specified at http://arts.gov/grants-organizations/art-works/arts-education	• Experience: Participants experience exemplary works of art -- in live form where possible -- to gain increased knowledge and skills in the art form. • Create: Informed by their experience in an art form, participants will create or perform art. • Assess: Student learning is measured and assessed according to either national or state arts education standards. At the conclusion of the project, grantees will be required to describe the assessment methods used to assess learning, and may submit tools used to assess learning with their Final Report.
